

Bonus Journal Pages

Zensational Stitches

A Note from D'vorah

Welcome again to Zensational Stitches and Designs by D'vorah. I've created a few bonus crochet journal pages for you to enjoy.

For additional crochet resources, come on over to our blog and to our Facebook group. I'll post the links below.

Soon you'll be hearing about our crochet club and workshops, where you'll have access to crochet tips and tricks, patterns, unique stitches, workshops on ways crocheters can use Canva to create printables, and more.

Keep a lookout for email updates from me, with details about the above, along with special coupons.

I'm excited to be on this crochet journey with you and look forward to getting to know you.

I've been crocheting since I was 8 and even put myself through college with the sales of my crochet work.

I'd love to hear your crochet story.

Here's where you go to get to our blog:

Come on over and join in the crochet conversation at:

The footer features a light gray rounded rectangle. On the left side, there is a graphic with the text "Just one more row" in a mix of pink, black, and green cursive fonts. A small crocheting hook icon is integrated into the word "one". On the right side of the box, there is a detailed illustration of a pink-handled crocheting hook.

My Favorite Crochet Projects

The page is framed by a decorative border consisting of a repeating pattern of triangles in shades of grey, red, and white. The main content area is divided into four large, rounded rectangular frames arranged in a 2x2 grid. These frames are connected by a central vertical line that features two heart-shaped motifs, one positioned between the top two frames and one between the bottom two frames. The entire layout is rendered in a light red color.
